Conducted Ceremony of Bapti. by Court Chaplain, Assisted by Sixteen Court Canons and Ladles in Watting.

ROME, Dec. 4.-The infant grown prince of Italy was baptized at the Quirinal today. The weather was showery, but this did not prevent a great crowd from gathering at the paiace to witness the passage of the carriages with their distinguished occupants. The ballroom of the Quirinal, which had been transformed into a chapel, was beautifully decorated. The altar stood at the end of the room with six immense golden candlesticks and a crucifix in the Above the altar was a picture, which had been taken from the Quirinal chapel representing the nativity of the Madonna and Child. Above this was a balcony for the court quintet. On either side of the steps leading to the altar were three pyramids of exquisite white flowers joined together by garlands of the same blossoms. The space between the windows was banked with flowers, making a perfect hower. Before the altar were rows of gilded chairs. On the left of the altar was a box for the Princesses Yolande and Mufalda, and for other children of the court. Under this, in red brocade, with palms, was another box for diplomats whose countries had sent royal representatives, such as Great Eritain, Germany, Portugal and Servia. The diplomats from other countries were not invited. Opposite this box and on the other side of the altar was a box for wearers of the collars of the annuziata, who rank as cousins of the king.

With the king and queen were the Prince of Montenegro, dressed as a gospador, with a rich Montenegrin costume, and his three daughters, Princess Helen of Servia, the Dowager Duchess of Genca, great grandmother of the Crown Prince; of Connaught, Prince Victor Napoleon, the Duke of Genoa, the Count of Turin

The spectacle was magnificent in the extreme. All the women present, including those of the royal party, were dressed white, with creamy lace vells on their heads, their persons glittering with jewels. the uniforms of the diplomatic and military representatives giving an added tone of color. The effect was heightened by the exquisite music of a quintet.

Ceremony is Picturesque. The baptismal ceremony was most pic Countess Bruschl-Falgari came slowly with the infant, which was taken by the queen, who advanced before the ultar. At the same time the king stepped to the box occupied by the royal children and lifted out the Princesses Yolandi and Mufalda, whom he kept beside him during the entire ceremony, which they watched with wide-eved interest. Downger Queen Margherita, the godmother, and Nicholas of Montenegro, the godfather, stood on either side of the queen and the infant with one hand on the Crown Princess' shoulder and a lighted candle in the other. The ceremony lasted fifteen minutes and the Crown Prince behaved splendidly, his only outery being when he felt the holy water upon his forehead. After the ceremony King Victor Emman uel kissed his little son and the queen made the round of the room to show the Crown Prince to everybody. Then, with deep bows to the altar and assembly, the royal party retired.

The informal reception after the baptism was shortened on account of the grave illness of the Duchess of Aosta. The members of the royal family had been informed by the Duke of Aosta of his wife's serious condition. The duke has ordained three days of prayer in the royal church at Turin, at which he will assist personally. Cardinal Richelmy, archbishop of the autocracy!" Turin, has ordered that special prayers in all the churches of archdiocese for the recovery of the Lights of Empire. LONDON, Dec. 5 .- A dispatch from St Petersburg to a news agency says: A remarkable meeting of 700 persons, the cream of the Russian intelligent classes, was held here Saturday night. Korolenko, a prominent Russian novelist, presided, and among those in attendance were Maxim Gorki, in his customary peasant's attire; Somevsky, the historian; Mme. Gallina, the poetess Mme. Shapia, the novelist, and other writers. Numerous resolutions were adopted, demanding reforms, freedom of speech, a parliament, etc. A poem was read denouncing the bureaucracy for carrying on an unjust war in Manchuria. Many women were in tears when Gorki, in scene of enthusiasm, kissed one of the orators. The meeting closed at 3 o'clock

IMMIGRATION FIGURES FOR YEAR Commissioner Sargent Deals with tions Contract Labor,

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.-Immigration to the United States increased materially during the last fiscal year, and it is notable fact that the moral, intellectual and physical conditions of immigrants adyear are higher than ever heretofore have been chronicled. These are two sailent fea tures of the annual report of Frank P. Sargent, commissioner general of immigration, which was made public today. The report says that during the past fiscal year 812,870 aliens arrived in the United States, of whom 549,100 were males and 263,770 females, an increase in the females as compared with last year of 19,876 and a decrease in the males of 64,646.

As respects age, 100,150 were under 14 years, 657,155 were between 14 and 45 and 46,565 were 45 or over. Of the total number of immigrants admitted 3,963 could read but not write, 168,908 could neither read nor write, and it is presumed the remainder, 640.014, could both read and write. It also appears that 103,750 of these aliens had already been to this country, 50,505 brought with them 350 or more each and 501,530 brought each less than $50. The total amount of money shown to officers by these $12,870 altens was $20,594,383, or $4,776,870 more than was brought by the $57,046 arrivals of last year. Italy, of right, has special interest in the greatest of the Roman generals and there is an inclination among members of the government party in that ountry to cement the friendship that prevails between Italy and America by a na-

People in Washington are interested in the chances of the completion of the group as outlined by the president, namely, Alexander, Hannibal, Caesar, Frederick the Great, Napoleon and Washington, but it is realized that no foreign countries may lay claim to any of the military heroes mentioned except France and Italy, Napoleon being the representative of the former and statue of Napoleon are not considered very good in view of the fact that the Frenchmen have already been most generous with their gifts of memorials to this country. Only a short while ago the presentation of the Rochambeau statue was made and there is now at the capitol a replica of the George Washington bust which has still to be formally received when congress convenes.

With this state of affairs the belief general that the group of statues of the great military heroes of former times as outlined in the president's address at the unveiling of the statue of Frederick the Great will not be realized for many years.

Text of the Order. The full text of it is as follows: PANAMA. Dec. 2, 1904.—By direction of the president it is ordered that, subject to the action of the Fifty-eighth congress, as contemplated by the act of congress, approved April 28, 1904:

by revisionists as well, that the whole subject of the tariff should be placed in the hands of a permanent tariff commission. It was argued then as now, that if such a commission were created, with broad and comprehensive powers regarding tariff revision, it would take the whole subject out of the domain of politics and a more equitable adjustment would result. The idea of a tariff commission is growing. Where it had a few advocates ten years ago it has many advocates ten years ago it has many

PITTSBURG, Dec. 4.—In a fire which was remarkable for its rapidity and awful havoc, Mrs. Rock Perry of No. 4 Chatham street and two of her children were burned to death this evening. Rock Perry, the husband, and his son Henry and daughter Annie were forced to stand in the street and seven forced to stand in the street and seven the rangedy. The police kept them from rushing into the flames for their loved ones.

The dead:

MRS. ROCK PERRY, 25 years old.

CHARLES PERRY, 2 years old.
